Comments from Survey Respondents | What Respondents Said

Positive Feedback

- We're a small, but dynamic organization that does a lot with what we have.
- Mission driven with a strong value proposition in place.
- Fun, easy to work with.
- We are a very respected organization that works hard for them.
- Good value. Hidden gem.
- We do good work and are necessary to keep them up to date with business.

Advocacy

- Solid advocate for business.
- Great legislative work and industry support.
- Strong voice and representation in the political process.
- Engaged in current events at the capitol.

Resources/Research/Content

- They can always get solid information from us to help them with their business.
- We deliver good value and content.
- Good at distributing information to members.
- We provide them with valuable tools and resources to conduct their business.
- They need updated and additional member resources.
- We don't do enough research.

Value

- What do we actually do for them?
- They love us, but have trouble translating the value of the membership into concrete words that justify the expense.
- We should offer more free things.
- What do I receive for the dues I pay?
- Provide good service but do not deliver value on a consistent basis.
- Eroding importance due to social media and private conferences.
- That we need to better communicate benefits and value because we offer so many things, they get lost in the shuffle.
- Good value for membership with the affinity programs.

Time for Change

- Out of touch with the issues they are facing.
- Useful, but has gotten stale.
- The association is changing but needs to go faster.
- Need to continue to evolve and reach new members.
- Provide great service but need to modernize.
- Recent retirements personnel changes provide a good opportunity for change.
- We've come a long way.
- Effective and getting better.

Customer Service

- They don't do enough for us.
- Not sure what they do all day.
- They would not be sure who we were and why they had to pay dues to us.
- I didn't realize I was a member.
- I don't know the difference between them and the competitor.

"I think that they would come up with a lot of ideas for what the association could offer, and 99% of those would be things that we already offer. I think that what they'd really be saying is that they don’t have enough time to take advantage or understand the benefits that are available to them."
Many respondents indicated that their members’ responses would vary based on level of engagement.

COMMUNICATION
- We need to reach more people with our message.
- They take forever to get back to us.
- We're helpful but email them too much.
- Provide a lot of communication and good at distributing information to members.

EDUCATION
- We provide value with educational programs.
- We have the best instructors.
- We're putting out more education and content, but that we need more benefits and more reach.
- Fun events and free education!
- Good way to learn best practices.

NETWORKING
- Well run organization with many movers and shakers.
- Networking is the number reason they belong.
- Good for networking and learning from each other.
- Thoughtful, intellectual, a place to engage.
- Great networking and community.

COMMUNICATION
- More options for digital learning and meetings.
- Need updated member resources.
- Needs to be more tech savvy.
- Need to be more mobile friendly.
- Our website is not easy to navigate.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS
- Bunch of stodgy, old, white people (even though we're not old).
- Maybe too skewed to the older population because that's the base of our leadership.
- We need to be more relevant with our younger members.
- We have transitioned to the next generation and we should be asking THEM what they want not the “old timers.”
- We need to do more to promote careers in our industry to young people.
- Definitely moving in a forward direction to engage younger members of the industry.
- We are attracting members from a variety of backgrounds and ages.

TECHNOLOGY
- I love their programs, but I don't have time to get involved.
- Don't have time to be as involved as they want to be.
- They're not sure how to get involved.
- They don't have time to read newsletters, social media, etc.
- Great volunteer opportunities to give back.

ENGAGEMENT
- There are too many events.
- Events are getting better and there's more value in attending.
- Lots of networking opportunities.

EVENTS
- They don't do enough for us.
- Not sure what they do all day.
- They would not be sure who we were and why they had to pay dues to us.
- I didn’t realize I was a member.
- I don't know the difference between them and the competitor.
